

These Geoscape General Terms of Use apply from:

- 1 July 2025 for users of our Website and new customers; or
- the next renewal of your subscription plan for customers who had access to Geoscape Hub before 1 July 2025.

A copy of our previous Geoscape General Terms of Use can be found here.

Note: if you had access to Geoscape Hub (previously known as Geoscape Developer) before 1 July 2025, any references in your subscription plan or other agreement to:

- the Geoscape Developer Terms, should be read as references to these Geoscape General Terms of Use; and
- Geoscape Developer, should be read as references to Geoscape Hub.

Geoscape General Terms of Use

These Geoscape General Terms of Use (these Terms) set out the terms and conditions that apply to your use of our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them. They form a legally binding agreement if you:

- access our Website;
- use Geoscape Hub; or
- enter into an agreement with us that incorporates these Terms by reference.

We've included a brief explanation of each part of these Terms in the left column to help you understand them. However, it's the words in the right column that are legally binding.

Please read these Terms carefully and make sure you understand them. If you do have any questions, please email support@geoscape.com.au or, if you have a Geoscape customer manager, contact them directly.

In these Terms:

- Geoscape Australia, we, us and our refer to PSMA Australia Ltd trading as Geoscape Australia ABN 23 089 912 710 of Unit 6, 113 Canberra Avenue, Griffith in the Australian Capital Territory; and
- You and your refer to the Organisation or individual who accesses our Website, uses Geoscape Hub or enters into an Agreement with Geoscape Australia that incorporates these Terms by reference (as applicable). In most cases, you will be an Organisation (acting through its Users) that has registered for Geoscape Hub or entered into an Agreement with us. However, where relevant, you may be an individual acting on their own behalf.

Agreement on behalf of an Organisation: If you are acting on behalf of an Organisation, you agree to these Terms for and on behalf of that Organisation and affirm that you have full legal authority to bind that Organisation.

These Terms are comprised of the following parts:

- Part A - Geoscape Hub and Website
- Part B - Geoscape APIs
- Part C - Geoscape Batch
- Part D - Geoscape Clip
- Part E - Geoscape Data
- Part F - Other general terms

In the event of any inconsistency between these Terms and other documents which comprise an Agreement, the following order of precedence will apply to the extent of the inconsistency:

1. any order, quote, key terms or other agreement document that incorporates these Terms by reference;
2. any Geoscape Hub subscription plan;
3. any specific terms applicable to a Geoscape product or service used by you (for example, a Geoscape API);
4. any other additional or custom terms incorporated by reference or that you agree to; and then
5. these Terms.

Part A - Geoscape Hub and Website

To use Geoscape Hub, you need a registered Organisation and a linked User identity. You can register directly here or accept an invitation from an Organisation.

Each Organisation is responsible for managing its own access, Users, subscriptions and fees, and must ensure its Users follow these Terms.

Organisations must not register more than once without our permission. If someone registers as a new Organisation but appears to be acting for an existing one, we may suspend access and confirm whether they should instead be added as a User.

If someone stops being authorised to act for an Organisation, that Organisation must ensure they no longer have access.

You must keep your credentials secure and let us know if they're compromised. We may change or cancel usernames or passwords and will let you know if we do.

You must not:

- create fake Organisation or User registrations;
- register multiple Organisations to misuse free plans or trials;
- share or transfer login details; or
- let others do any of the above for you.

Organisations and Users must keep their details up to date in Geoscape Hub.

If we reasonably believe these rules haven't been followed, we may suspend the Organisation's access to Geoscape Hub or deactivate any linked User identities.

To use some Geoscape products and services, your Organisation needs an active subscription plan.

The plan starts when a User subscribes your Organisation and automatically renews for the same period unless cancelled.

If it's longer than a month, we'll give you at least 30 days' notice before renewal.

Your plan forms part of your Agreement and includes these Terms.

You can change plans through Geoscape Hub or by entering into a custom Agreement.

Geoscape Hub Access and Identities

- 1.1 You need both an Organisation and a linked User identity to access Geoscape Hub. You can register for these through the Geoscape Hub registration page or by accepting an invitation from an Organisation.
- 1.2 Each Organisation represents a distinct entity within Geoscape Hub and is responsible for managing its access, Users, and subscriptions.
- 1.3 Organisations must not register more than once without Geoscape Australia's permission. If you register as an Organisation and we reasonably believe that you are acting on behalf of an existing Organisation, we may suspend your access and contact both you and the existing Organisation to confirm whether you should instead be added as the existing Organisation's User.
- 1.4 Organisations are responsible for setting the roles and permissions of their Users and all activity undertaken through their access to Geoscape Hub, including all associated fees. Organisations must ensure their Users comply with these Terms and any applicable Agreement. If a User ceases to be authorised to use Geoscape Hub on the Organisation's behalf, the Organisation must ensure that the User can no longer access Geoscape Hub using a User identity linked to the Organisation, or otherwise access any Geoscape products or services provided via the Organisation's access to Geoscape Hub.
- 1.5 You are responsible for keeping your Geoscape Hub username, password and other credentials (such as API keys or tokens) secure. If you suspect your credentials have been compromised, you must take reasonable steps to stop unauthorised access and notify us at support@geoscape.com.au as soon as practicable.
- 1.6 We may change or revoke Geoscape Hub usernames and passwords at any time, and will notify you if we do so.
- 1.7 You must not:
 - (a) create fake Organisation or User registrations, including using disposable emails, automated programs or similar methods;
 - (b) register multiple Organisations to unfairly benefit from free subscription plans or trials;
 - (c) share or transfer usernames and passwords; or
 - (d) allow any of the above on your behalf.
- 1.8 Organisations and Users must keep their contact details and any related information up to date in Geoscape Hub.
- 1.9 If we reasonably believe an Organisation or User is not complying with this clause 1, we may suspend or terminate the Organisation's access to Geoscape Hub, or deactivate any linked User identities.

Your Geoscape Hub Subscription Plan

- 2.1 To access certain products and services available through Geoscape Hub, an Organisation must have an active subscription plan.
- 2.2 A subscription plan begins when a User subscribes the Organisation to the plan and will automatically renew for further subscription periods equal to the initial subscription period unless cancelled in accordance with clause 6.
- 2.3 If your subscription period is longer than one month, we will give you notice at least 30 days before the renewal date.
- 2.4 Your subscription plan incorporates these Terms and forms part of your Agreement.
- 2.5 Subscription plans can be changed through Geoscape Hub, or by entering into a custom Agreement with us.

We may offer free subscription plans at our discretion. We can change the terms, limit eligibility or withdraw a free plan with at least 14 days' notice.

We may use available information to decide if you're eligible.

An Organisation can only have one free plan at a time without our permission.

If your free plan ends or you're no longer eligible, you'll need a paid plan to keep accessing covered services.

We may offer free trials of paid plans at our discretion. We can change the terms, limit eligibility or withdraw a trial without notice.

We may use any information we have to decide if you're eligible.

Each Organisation is only entitled to one trial, which lasts one month unless we say otherwise.

To start a trial, you need to provide a valid payment method. If you don't cancel before it ends, we'll charge you for the monthly paid plan linked to the trial.

When your trial ends, is withdrawn, or you're no longer eligible, you'll need a paid plan to keep accessing the products and services that were covered by the trial.

Some services require a paid plan. You can read about our paid plans here.

To subscribe, you need to provide a valid payment method and keep it up to date.

Payments are processed through Stripe unless we agree otherwise. By paying, you accept Stripe's terms.

Fees are charged monthly or yearly in advance based on your selected plan, not your usage. If you subscribe on a date that doesn't occur in a later month or year (like the 31st or 29 February), we'll charge you on the last available day.

Your plan renews automatically unless cancelled, and you authorise us to charge your payment method each period.

If a payment fails and isn't fixed, your access to Geoscape Hub features, including products and services, may be suspended.

3 Free Subscription Plans

3.1 We may offer free subscription plans at our discretion. We may withdraw a free plan, change its conditions, or limit who is eligible to access it by giving at least 14 days' notice.

3.2 We may use any information available to us to determine whether you are eligible for a free subscription plan.

3.3 An Organisation must not hold more than one free subscription plan at a time without our permission.

3.4 If we withdraw a free subscription plan you are subscribed to, or determine that you are no longer eligible, you must subscribe to a paid plan to continue accessing any products or services that were covered by the free plan.

4 Free Trial Access

4.1 We may offer a free trials of paid subscription plans (Trial) at our discretion. We may withdraw any Trial offer, change its conditions, or limit who is eligible to access it without notice.

4.2 We may use any information available to us to determine your eligibility for a Trial.

4.3 Unless we state otherwise in writing, an Organisation is entitled to only one Trial, and a Trial provides access to a paid subscription plan for a period of one month.

4.4 To activate a Trial, you must provide a valid payment method. By doing so, you authorise us to charge that payment method if the Trial is not cancelled in accordance with clause 4.5.

4.5 If you do not cancel the Trial before the end of the one month Trial period (or any alternative period we specify in writing), you will be subscribed to the monthly paid subscription plan associated with the Trial, and we will charge the supplied payment method accordingly.

4.6 If we withdraw the Trial or determine that you are no longer eligible, you must subscribe to a paid plan to continue accessing any products or services that were covered by the Trial.

5 Paid Subscription Plans

5.1 Some Geoscape products and services are only available if you have a paid subscription plan. You can enter into a paid subscription plan by subscribing through Geoscape Hub or by agreeing to a custom subscription plan offered to you by us.

5.2 You must provide a valid payment method when you subscribe to a paid plan. You can update your payment method at any time through Geoscape Hub.

5.3 Unless we agree otherwise in writing (including by issuing a tax invoice), fees must be paid using payment processing services provided by Stripe Payments Australia Pty Ltd and are subject to the Stripe Services Agreement (Stripe Terms) available here. You should review the Stripe Terms before paying, as you will be taken to have agreed to the Stripe Terms and will be bound by them, as modified by Stripe Payments Australia Pty Ltd from time to time, when you do so.

5.4 Fees are payable monthly or yearly in advance from the date that you subscribe, depending on the subscription plan you select. If you subscribe to a monthly plan on the 29th, 30th or 31st of a month or a yearly plan on 29 February, we will charge you on the last day of the month when those dates do not arise in a month or year.

5.5 You authorise us to charge you your subscription fees for the next subscription period unless your subscription is cancelled in accordance with clause 7.

5.6 Subscription fees are based on the features and entitlements included in your subscription plan, not your actual usage.

	5.7	You are responsible for ensuring that your nominated payment method is valid and has sufficient funds to pay the subscription fees. If your payment fails and you do not update your payment method and rectify the non-payment, we may immediately suspend your access to Geoscape Hub features (including Geoscape products and services) until we have received the outstanding payment in full.
Your subscription plan includes usage limits, measured in credits, which reset at the start of each subscription period. You check the limits for our plans here.	6	Credit Balance and Overage
Unused credits won't carry over to the next period.	6.1	Your subscription plan includes usage limits, which are measured in credits. Usage limits reset at the beginning of each subscription period.
If you reach your limit, we'll notify you by email. Unless you've enabled overage, access to some products and services may be suspended until your limits reset.	6.2	You must use any credits allocated under your subscription plan within the relevant subscription period. Unused credits will expire at the end of that period and will not carry over to subsequent subscription periods.
Overage lets you keep using services beyond your included limits for an extra fee. Overage fees are charged automatically and payable in arrears, either with your next subscription payment or at the end of your subscription if you cancel.	6.3	If you reach your usage limit, we will notify you by email, and: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) if you have not enabled overage, or have set your overage limit to $0, we may suspend access to Geoscape products and services that require credits until the start of your next subscription period; or (b) if you have enabled overage on a paid subscription plan, we will allow you to exceed your usage limits up to your nominated overage limit and will charge your payment method for any usage above your included limits at the rates set out in your subscription plan. NOTE: Overage is not available on free subscription plans. If you are on a free subscription plan, you must upgrade to a paid subscription to continue accessing Geoscape products and services once your usage limit is reached.
Overage isn't available on free plans. You'll need to upgrade to continue if you exceed your usage.	6.4	Overage fees are charged automatically and payable in arrears: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) with the fees for your next subscription period or as otherwise specified in your subscription plan or as set in Geoscape Hub; or (b) if you cancel your subscription, at the end of your subscription period.
You can turn overage on or off in Geoscape Hub (unless you're on a custom plan, in which case changes must be agreed with us).	6.5	You can enable overage through Geoscape Hub or by agreeing to a custom subscription plan that we offer you. If you enable overage through Geoscape Hub, you can also disable it through Geoscape Hub. If you enable overage through a custom subscription plan, you will need to agree to any changes to that custom subscription plan with us.
If you need higher usage limits than those available under our standard subscription plans, please contact support@geoscape.com.au to discuss a custom plan.	7	Cancellation of Subscription Plans
You can cancel your subscription plan at any time before your current subscription period ends. To cancel, either do it through Geoscape Hub or email us at support@geoscape.com.au. The cancellation will take effect at the end of your current subscription period.	7.1	You can cancel your subscription plan at any time before the end of your current subscription through Geoscape Hub or by notifying us by email at support@geoscape.com.au . The cancellation will be effective at the end of the subscription period in which you give notice.
If we cancel your plan, we'll give 30 days' notice. You can keep using our services until the end of the subscription period during which our 30-day notice period expires.	7.2	We can cancel your subscription plan by giving you at least 30 days' notice. If we cancel your subscription plan under this clause 7.2, the cancellation will be effective at the end of the subscription period during which our 30-day notice period expires.
We may cancel your plan on only 7 days' notice if legal changes or supplier issues affect your plan. If we do, we'll refund any prepaid fees on a pro-rata basis, based on the time remaining in your subscription period, not unused credits.	7.3	If there has been a change in any Laws or our arrangements with suppliers affecting your subscription plan, we can cancel your subscription plan by giving you at least 7 days' notice. If we cancel your subscription plan under this clause 7.3: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the cancellation will be effective at the end of the notice period; and (b) we will refund to you any fees you have paid in advance for the period beyond that date on a pro-rata basis, calculated based on the time remaining in your subscription period, not on any unused credits.
You have several responsibilities and obligations when you access our Website or Geoscape Hub. You should familiarise yourself with them.	8	Your Responsibilities and Obligations
	8.1	You are responsible for ensuring that your use of our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them:

For example:

You and your authorised users must comply with these Terms, applicable laws, and respect others' rights.

- Don't download, scrape, or harvest data from our Website or Geoscape Hub using automated tools, unless we've explicitly made it available for download.
- You're prohibited from reverse engineering, modifying, or disrupting our services, and must not bypass security measures.
- Do not redistribute any part of Geoscape Hub for commercial purposes or resell access.
- Only authorised users should access Geoscape Hub.
- You must not upload unacceptable content.

You must follow any Geoscape Documentation we provide, and notify us if you become aware of any breaches.

We may remove any unacceptable content from Geoscape Hub.

We may also suspend your access if we reasonably believe you've breached these obligations.

- (a) complies with these Terms and your Agreement (as applicable), and all applicable laws, regulations and codes of conduct; and
- (b) does not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights or other rights of any person.

You must:

- (a) not download (subject to clause 8.3), extract, scrape, screenshot or otherwise harvest Geoscape Data or other information from our Website or Geoscape Hub, including by using any spider, robot or site search and retrieval application;
- (b) not modify, adapt, translate, reverse engineer, de-compile, disassemble or copy all or any part of Geoscape Hub or our Website;
- (c) not interfere with or disrupt Geoscape Hub or our Website, including by transmitting any viruses, spyware, malware or any other code of a destructive or disruptive nature;
- (d) promptly notify us if you become aware of any breach of these Terms by you or a User linked to you;
- (e) comply with any Geoscape Documentation made available by us to you from time to time;
- (f) not attempt to circumvent or break any encryption, decryption or other security device or technological protection measure contained in Geoscape Hub or our Website;
- (g) not redistribute any part of Geoscape Hub for commercial purposes or otherwise sublicense or resell access to Geoscape Hub;
- (h) not permit any persons other than Users who have a User identity linked to the Organisation in Geoscape Hub to use Geoscape Hub;
- (i) only use Geoscape Documentation internally within your own business or personally (as applicable) and only for the purposes of helping you understand and use Geoscape Data, Geoscape APIs and other products and services available through Geoscape Hub; and
- (j) not upload any Unacceptable Content to Geoscape Hub.

8.3 You may download:

- (a) Sample Data that we explicitly make available for download; and
- (b) any Geoscape Data you have ordered or licensed from us that we explicitly make available for download.

8.4 If we believe that any Unacceptable Content has been uploaded to Geoscape Hub, we may remove it.

8.5 If we reasonably believe you have breached this clause 8, we may immediately suspend your access to Geoscape Hub and any associated Geoscape products and services.

We'll provide remote support as outlined in your subscription plan, through live chat, email, phone, or our support portal.

You're responsible for providing support to your End Users.

We strive to keep Geoscape Hub and our products and services available, but in certain situations we may need to suspend or limit access. This may happen for operational, legal or rights-related reasons. We'll notify you as soon as practicable.

You're responsible for downloading and storing your Geoscape Data and any User Data you upload. We won't remove your access to this data without giving you at

9 Geoscape Support

9.1 We will provide support services remotely via live chat, our support portal, email or telephone as set out in your subscription plan.

9.2 We do not provide support to your End Users. You are solely responsible for supporting your End Users.

10 Availability

10.1 We use reasonable endeavours to ensure that Geoscape Hub and our products and services available through Geoscape Hub are available to you as set out in these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable).

10.2 We may suspend, limit or throttle access to and the availability of Geoscape Hub and our products and services available through Geoscape Hub:

least 60 days' notice, unless your access is otherwise restricted under these Terms or your Agreement.

- (a) to address any actual or perceived emergency, misuse or threat to the operation of Geoscape Hub or our products and services available through Geoscape Hub;
- (b) to comply with any applicable Laws, or to respond to requests or demands of a government entity; or
- (c) pursuant to a privacy or copyright 'notice and take down' request or other alleged violation of Intellectual Property Rights or other third party rights.

We will notify you as soon as practicable of any such suspension or limitation.

- 10.3 You are responsible for downloading and storing Geoscape Data we make available to you via Geoscape Hub and for storing any User Data you upload to Geoscape Hub. However, we will not remove your access to Geoscape Data or your User Data on less than 60 days' notice (unless we are otherwise restricting or terminating your access to Geoscape Hub in accordance with these Terms or your Agreement, (as applicable)).

We're always looking to improve our products and services. So, we may monitor and collect data on how you and your End Users use our services, including any corrections or suggestions you provide.

We may use and share this data to maintain and improve our products, and we might keep related metadata indefinitely for audit purposes.

If your data includes personal information, we handle it according to privacy laws and our privacy policy. We'll take reasonable steps to de-identify it before using or sharing it where possible.

Any data that becomes part of our products or services becomes our property, and we may distribute them to other customers.

11 User Data

- 11.1 When you and your Users and End Users use our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them, we may monitor that use and collect information about it, including information that you or your End Users process through our products and services (for example, addresses verified through the Geoscape Addresses API and input files processed as part of a batch job) (User Data). User Data also includes any corrections or improvements you suggest to us.

- 11.2 We may:

- (a) use User Data and disclose it to third parties for the purposes of maintaining or improving our products and services; and
- (b) retain User Data metadata indefinitely for audit purposes.

- 11.3 If User Data includes Personal Information, we will handle it in accordance with Privacy Laws and our privacy policy. We will use reasonable endeavours to de-identify User Data before it is:

- (a) incorporated within our products or services; or
- (b) disclosed to third parties for the purposes of improving our products and services.

- 11.4 If any User Data is incorporated within our products or services, any Intellectual Property Rights in such User Data as it forms part of our products or services hereby vest in us upon creation. We may distribute our products and services that incorporate User Data to our other customers.

Geoscape Hub and our Website interact with and require third party applications for certain features and functionality.

These applications are governed by their own terms, called Third Party Provider Terms, which you must follow.

Since we can't control them, we don't make any representations or give any warranties about third party applications.

Some of the third party services we use include Amazon Web Services, Intercom, Mapbox, Stripe, and others, each with its own Third Party Provider Terms.

12 Third Party Applications

- 12.1 Geoscape Hub and our Website interact with Third Party Applications and require Third Party Applications or Third Party Providers for particular features and functionality.

- 12.2 You acknowledge that these Third Party Applications are subject to the Third Party Provider Terms set out in clause 12.4, and you must ensure that your use of these Third Party Applications complies with the relevant Third Party Provider Terms.

- 12.3 We do not make any representations or provide any warranties or guarantees in relation to Third Party Applications.

- 12.4 The Third Party Applications used by Geoscape Hub and our Website include those listed below, which are subject to the following terms (Third Party Provider Terms):

Geoscape Hub and our Website may include links to external websites owned and operated by third parties.

These links are provided for your convenience, not as an endorsement of the site, its content, or its owners.

We're not responsible for any content on third party websites.

We may offer beta products and services for testing and assessment, which are clearly marked "beta" and still in development, so use them at your own risk.

Beta products and services may change or be withdrawn at any time, and you can't use them for commercial purposes without our consent.

Support under your subscription doesn't apply to beta products and services. You can contact us at support@geoscape.com.au, but we're not required to resolve issues.

If you participate in a beta program, we may ask for your feedback and use it for any purpose.

If you've been using a beta product or service and we make significant changes, remove it, or decide not to release it commercially, we'll let you know.

13 Links to Third Party Websites

- 13.1 Geoscape Hub and our Website may contain links to other websites that are owned and operated by third parties and not under our control (Third Party Websites).
- 13.2 Links to Third Party Websites on Geoscape Hub or our Website are provided as a convenience to you and not as an endorsement of the Third Party Websites, their content or their owners and operators.
- 13.3 We are not responsible for the content on any Third Party Website.

14 Beta Geoscape products and services

- 14.1 From time to time, we may offer access to beta Geoscape products and services (for example, a beta Geoscape API) that we have not released for commercial use. All such beta Geoscape products and services are clearly marked "beta".
- 14.2 Beta Geoscape products and services are made available for the purposes of testing and assessment only. All beta Geoscape products and services are subject to ongoing development and may not reach the level of performance of commercially released Geoscape products and services. We may decide not to release any beta Geoscape products and services for commercial use in our complete discretion.
- 14.3 Your use of any beta Geoscape products and services is entirely at your own risk.
- 14.4 We can change any version of beta Geoscape products and services or withdraw their availability at any time.
- 14.5 You must not use a beta Geoscape products and services for commercial purposes without our prior written consent.
- 14.6 If you agree to join a beta Geoscape program, you become a beta tester for any beta Geoscape products and services to which you have access and we may ask you to provide comments, suggestions and any other feedback on those beta Geoscape products and services. We may use any information that you provide to us in relation to beta Geoscape products and services for any purpose.
- 14.7 You can leave the beta Geoscape program at any time by notifying us that you wish to do by emailing support@geoscape.com.au.
- 14.8 The support and availability offered under clause 9 does not apply to beta Geoscape products and services. You can contact us at support@geoscape.com.au for technical support in relation to beta Geoscape products and services. However, we are under no obligation to resolve any faults or errors in beta Geoscape products and services.

- 14.9 In relation to any beta Geoscape products and services to which you have access, we will notify you if we:
- (a) significantly change a version of the beta Geoscape products and services;
 - (b) release an updated version of the beta Geoscape products and services;
 - (c) withdraw the availability to you of a beta Geoscape products and services; or
 - (d) decide to officially release or not to officially release the beta Geoscape products and services.

Part B - Geoscape APIs

Some Geoscape APIs may have specific terms that apply to their use. These specific terms are available here.

These terms may grant extra permissions or impose additional restrictions on using the Geoscape Data accessed through the API.

You must follow these specific terms, which become part of your agreement with us if you use the API.

We may offer additional products or services related to Geoscape APIs, like additional support plans. These may have their own terms, which become part of your agreement with us if you accept them.

If we perform services (like batch processing) on your behalf, the fees will be outlined in a quotation and must be paid in advance.

We'll only proceed once you confirm acceptance in writing (email is sufficient).

These Terms will apply to the extent relevant, including so that any data you provide will be treated as User Data, and any data we return will be treated as Geoscape Data.

You can use Geoscape APIs to build, maintain and deliver your Apps, but only while your subscription is active.

You can use the Geoscape Data you access through the APIs (and anything you create using that data) for internal business or personal use. Core Data can be used on an ongoing basis, but Premium Data can only be used while you have a current subscription for it.

Note: Specific terms for a Geoscape API may grant additional permissions or impose

15 Specific Terms for Geoscape APIs

- 15.1 Additional specific terms may apply to some Geoscape APIs. These specific terms are available through the legal terms section of Geoscape Hub. They may grant additional permissions or impose additional restrictions, for example, in relation to the use of Geoscape Data accessible through a Geoscape API.
- 15.2 You must use Geoscape APIs in accordance with any specific terms that apply to them and, if you use a Geoscape API that has specific terms, those additional specific terms form part of our Agreement with you.

16 Terms for Additional Products and Services

- 16.1 We may offer you additional products or services related to Geoscape APIs. Additional terms may apply to them and will form part of your Agreement if you accept them.
- 16.2 We may offer to use Geoscape APIs on your behalf. For example, we may offer to undertake batch processing for you. Unless otherwise agreed:
- (a) we will only provide such services once we receive written confirmation (email being sufficient) that you accept our quotation for the services;
 - (b) the fees for any such services will be as set out in our quotation for the services and are payable in advance;
 - (c) to the extent applicable, these Terms apply to such services, including so that:
 - (i) any records that you supply to us for processing will be treated as User Data; and
 - (ii) any data that we return to you will be treated as Geoscape Data accessed through the relevant Geoscape API.

17 Permitted Use and Restrictions

- 17.1 We permit you to use:
- (a) Geoscape APIs, and the API keys or tokens we provide to enable your access to Geoscape APIs, internally within your own business or personally (as applicable) and only for the purposes of creating, maintaining and delivering your Apps during your subscription period; and
 - (b) Geoscape Data accessed by you through Geoscape APIs (and any Derived Material you create using such Geoscape Data) for the Permitted Purpose of internal use within your own business for day-to-day operations or your personal use (as applicable), on the following basis:

additional restrictions on the use of Geoscape Data accessible through that API.

You can't use data accessed by your End Users unless you've accessed it yourself directly through the APIs. Extra terms may apply to specific APIs or datasets.

To protect us and others, the following rules apply:

- You must only make APIs, data, and outputs available through your Apps, not as standalone products.
- End Users can only use the data internally or personally. For Premium Data, they can use it for the longer of one year from when they access it, or while your subscription is active. You must not proxy the APIs or use them to compete with us.
- Your Apps must not cache API responses to build data repositories or serve multiple users from a single API call.
- You must not use the APIs or Hub in ways that damage or disrupt them or bypass technical limits.
- You must not use the data to develop products, services or AI capabilities for commercialisation (except your Apps).
- Your Apps must include any necessary warnings or safety info.
- You must use appropriate technical and security measures.
- You must not combine our data or APIs with open-source material if that could force our data to be shared or relicensed.
- You must not use the data, APIs, or your Apps for anything illegal, misleading, unethical or harmful.

You must:

- make sure your End Users follow these rules too;
- cooperate with us and share information about how you and your End Users use our APIs and data; and
- follow all applicable laws.

- (i) for Core Data, on a perpetual basis; and
- (ii) for Premium Data, only for the duration of your active subscription to the relevant Premium Data, subject to any specific terms that apply to the use of Geoscape Data made available through a Geoscape API.

For the avoidance of doubt:

- (c) Geoscape Data accessed by your End Users through your Apps should not be used by you unless you have made your own separate calls to Geoscape APIs to access that Geoscape Data; and
- (d) where applicable, Part E of these Terms (on Geoscape Data) applies to Geoscape Data accessed through Geoscape APIs (for example, clause 28 on restrictions on use of Geoscape Data and clause 30 on copyright information).

17.2 You must:

- (a) only make Geoscape APIs, Geoscape Data accessed through Geoscape APIs, and Derived Material available to third parties through your Apps (that is, you must not resell, distribute, sublicense, or otherwise make them available on a standalone basis);
- (b) only permit End Users to use Geoscape Data and Derived Material internally within their own business for the purposes of their day-to-day operations or personally (as applicable), on the following basis:
 - (i) for Core Data, on a perpetual basis; and
 - (ii) for Premium Data, for the longer of one year from the date the End User accesses it, or the duration of your active subscription to that Premium Data, subject to any specific terms that apply to the use of Geoscape Data made available through a Geoscape API;
- (c) not proxy Geoscape APIs for the purposes of offering a service that is competitive with Geoscape APIs;
- (d) ensure that your Apps do not cache, download or otherwise persistently store Geoscape API responses for the purposes of building a location data repository or scaling one Geoscape API transaction to serve multiple End Users;
- (e) not use Geoscape Hub or Geoscape APIs in any way that threatens their security, integrity or availability (including by exceeding any throughput rates set out in your subscription plan or conducting performance or stress tests) or in any way that works around any of their technical limitations;
- (f) not use Geoscape Data accessed by you through Geoscape APIs or Derived Material to develop capability (including artificial intelligence or machine learning capability), products, services, outputs or other material (including artificial intelligence or machine learning algorithms) for commercialisation or potential commercialisation, noting that you are permitted to use Geoscape APIs to create Apps;
- (g) not use Geoscape APIs in Apps that lack any legally required or otherwise appropriate instructions, warnings, notices and safety information;
- (h) use appropriate technological and security measures to ensure that access and use of Geoscape APIs by you and through your Apps is secure;
- (i) not use Geoscape APIs, or Geoscape Data accessed by you through Geoscape APIs or Derived Material, in any manner or with any other material that may make them subject to any open source software, open content or open database licence terms that would:

- (i) cause their disclosure or distribution in whole or in part;
 - (ii) grant licences to any derivative works of them in whole or in part;
 - (iii) cause their redistribution in whole or in part at no charge, as a condition for use, modification or distribution of the other material; or
 - (iv) otherwise restrict or impact their licensing or other use in whole or in part;
- (j) not use Geoscape APIs, your Apps, Geoscape Data accessed by you through Geoscape APIs or Derived Material for anything that, in our opinion, may be illegal, deceptive, misleading, unethical, incorrect, offensive, defamatory, or detrimental to our interests or reputation, may infringe any third party rights, or be otherwise inappropriate;
 - (k) cooperate with us in relation to matters relating to your subscription and provide us with access to information relating to your use and, where applicable, your End Users' use of, Geoscape APIs, your Apps, and Geoscape Data accessed through Geoscape APIs and Derived Material; and
 - (l) comply with all Laws applicable to use of Geoscape APIs, your Apps, Geoscape Data accessed by you through Geoscape APIs and Derived Material.

17.3 Where applicable, you must take all reasonable steps to ensure that your End Users comply with clause 17.2 as though they were you.

When you make an App available to your End Users, you need to have a legally binding agreement with them that reflects the requirements of any applicable specific terms and your obligations under these Terms and your Agreement.

Your agreements with your End Users need to reflect and support your obligations under your agreement with us, including requiring cooperation from End Users where needed.

You need to make sure your End Users use your Apps (and our products and services available through them) only as permitted.

If you find out that your End User is doing something they shouldn't, you need to let us know promptly and cooperate with us to address that. We may give you directions, including requiring you to suspend or terminate the End User's access.

If you don't, we may step into your shoes to take action against the End User after giving you notice of breach.

18 End User Access

18.1 If you make an App available to an End User, you must first put in place a legally binding agreement with the End User that reflects your obligations under these Terms and your Agreement (including the requirements of any specific terms applicable to the Geoscape APIs used by the App).

18.2 Where these Terms or any Agreement requires you to take reasonable steps to do something that requires the cooperation of an End User or to get an End User to do or refrain from doing something, those reasonable steps include incorporating into your agreement with the End User an obligation for the End User to cooperate as required or to either do or refrain from doing that thing.

18.3 You must take all reasonable steps to ensure that your End Users comply with their agreements with you and with any other terms required by the specific terms applicable to the Geoscape APIs used by an App.

18.4 If you become aware of any conduct by an End User that is in breach of the terms of their agreement with you or any other terms required by the specific terms applicable to the Geoscape APIs used by an App, you must promptly notify us and comply with our reasonable directions in relation to the breach, which may include:

- (a) issuing a notice to the End User notifying them of the breach and requiring that it be remedied;
- (b) suspending the End User's access to your Apps and rights to use Geoscape Data and Derived Material; and
- (c) terminating the End User's access to your Apps and, where applicable, revoking their rights to use Geoscape Data and Derived Material.

18.5 If you breach this clause 18, we may give you notice of the breach and, on the giving of such notice, you irrevocably appoint us as your agent for the purposes of enforcing your rights against an End User as they relate to use of Geoscape APIs, Geoscape Data and Derived Material (as applicable). You must take all reasonable steps to ensure that End Users do not challenge the validity of our appointment.

Things change and over time that may include some of our Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data.

We'll let you know in advance about any significant API Modification or Discontinuation Events, particularly if any aren't going to be backwards-compatible. Where possible, we'll give at least 90 days' notice.

You're responsible for making sure that your Apps remain compatible with Geoscape APIs.

If we discontinue any Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data, your agreement will be varied accordingly to remove them and any fees payable specifically for them. We'll refund you any fees you've paid in advance specifically for the discontinued APIs or Data.

If you don't want to continue your subscription plan after we've changed or discontinued Geoscape APIs, you can cancel your subscription plan. You'll need to pay your subscription fees up to the cancellation date, but we'll refund you any amounts you've paid for beyond that date.

Refunds and cancellation under this clause are your sole remedy for an API Modification or Discontinuation Event.

19 Changes to Geoscape APIs and Discontinuation

- 19.1 You acknowledge that we may:
- (a) modify the features and functions of Geoscape APIs, including Geoscape Data delivered through them; and
 - (b) discontinue the availability of any Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data, at our discretion (an API Modification or Discontinuation Event).
- 19.2 We will give you notice of any significant API Modification or Discontinuation Events in advance where we can reasonably do so. If the changes resulting from an API Modification or Discontinuation Event are not backwards compatible, we will use reasonable efforts to let you know at least 90 days prior to their implementation.
- 19.3 You are responsible for ensuring that your Apps remain compatible with the current Geoscape APIs.
- 19.4 If we discontinue the availability of any Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data as part of an API Modification or Discontinuation Event, we may by notice to you vary your subscription to remove the relevant Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data, and any fees payable specifically for the discontinued Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data. If you have paid any fees in advance specifically for the discontinued Geoscape APIs or Geoscape Data, we will refund you those fees on a pro-rata basis.
- 19.5 If you do not want your subscription plan to continue because of an API Modification or Discontinuation Event, you can cancel your subscription plan by giving us notice within 30 days of receiving our notice under clause 19.2. The cancellation will take effect on the date nominated by you in your notice. You will be liable for your subscription fees up to the date on which your subscription plan is cancelled. However, we will refund to you any fees you have paid in advance for the period beyond that date on a pro-rata basis.
- 19.6 The refunds and right to cancel your subscription under this clause 19 are your sole remedy against us in respect of any API Modification or Discontinuation Event.

Part C – Geoscape Batch

You're responsible for setting up and configuring the batch jobs you order.

We'll give you a cost estimate and try to give you a sample before processing your order.

If the batch job is set up incorrectly, you're still responsible for covering the costs. However, if you mistakenly order a batch job, we may cancel it and restore your credits, minus processing fees, at our discretion. If we do cancel it, your right to use the data ordered is revoked, and you must delete any copies. We may also require you to provide a statutory declaration or other evidence confirming deletion.

If we can't provide the data you order and your order is set up correctly, we may not charge you at our discretion.

20 Batch jobs

- 20.1 You are responsible for setting the parameters of the batch jobs you order through Geoscape Hub and making sure they are configured correctly.
- 20.2 When you order a batch job through Geoscape Hub, we will:
- (a) endeavour to provide you with a sample of the batch job you are ordering to help you confirm that it is configured correctly; and
 - (b) give you a quote that summarises the batch job and estimates the cost of the order,
- before we process your order.
- 20.3 If a batch job is misconfigured, you are responsible for any costs incurred. However, if you mistakenly order a batch job, we may cancel the order and restore your credits (less our processing costs) in our complete discretion. If we do so, your Licence to use the Geoscape Data ordered is revoked and you must permanently delete any copies of that Geoscape Data in your possession or control and, if requested by us, provide us with a statutory declaration (or other evidence satisfactory to us) that you have permanently deleted this Geoscape Data.
- 20.4 If we are unable to provide you with any Geoscape Data you have ordered and your order is not misconfigured, we may not charge you for that Geoscape Data in our complete discretion.

You're allowed to use the Geoscape Data you receive as a batch job in the same way you'd use Geoscape Data accessed through Geoscape APIs. For more details, see clause 17.1(b).

Geoscape Hub lets you manage both Geoscape Data and User Data related to batch jobs.

When you delete a batch job, the related input and output files are permanently deleted.

If you provide a location for input and output, we'll only keep your User Data while processing the job. If you don't provide a location, we'll store your User Data until you delete the job.

However, we may keep metadata related to your batch jobs indefinitely for audit purposes.

21 Permitted Use

21.1 We permit you to use Geoscape Data you order as a batch job in the same manner as Geoscape Data accessed through Geoscape APIs. See clause 17.1(b) for details.

22 User Data

22.1 Geoscape Hub provides self-service capability for you to manage both Geoscape Data and User Data related to your batch jobs. You can delete your batch jobs in Geoscape Hub and doing so will permanently delete the related input and output files.

22.2 If you provide us with an input and output location for a batch job, we will only retain your User Data related to the batch job while we process the batch job.

22.3 If you do not provide us with an input and output location for a batch job, we will store your User Data related to the batch job and make it available to you through Geoscape Hub until you delete the batch job.

22.4 Notwithstanding the above, we may retain metadata related to your batch jobs indefinitely for audit purposes.

Part D – Geoscape Clip

You're responsible for setting up and configuring the Geoscape Data clips you order.

We'll give you a quote for the order, which you can pay for with credits or a valid payment method like a credit card. Payments go through Stripe, and by paying, you agree to be bound by Stripe's terms.

Our quotes are valid for 5 days. If a quote expires, you'll need a new one.

If the Geoscape Data clip is set up incorrectly, you're still responsible for covering the costs, but we may cancel the order and restore your credits, minus processing fees, at our discretion. If we do cancel it, your right to use the data ordered is revoked, and you must delete any copies. We may also require you to provide a statutory declaration or other evidence confirming deletion.

23 Geoscape Data Clips

23.1 You are responsible for setting the parameters of the Geoscape Data clips you order through Geoscape Hub and making sure they are configured correctly.

23.2 When you order a Geoscape Data clip through Geoscape Hub, we will give you a quote that summarises the order and sets out its costs, which you can pay for in credits or via a valid payment method (for example, a credit card). Payments will be processed using payment processing services provided by Stripe Payments Australia Pty Ltd and are subject to the Stripe Terms found here. You should review the Stripe Terms before paying, as you will be taken to have agreed to the Stripe Terms and will be bound by them, as modified by Stripe Payments Australia Pty Ltd from time to time, when you do so.

23.3 Our quotes are valid for 5 days. If our quote expires, you will need to request another quote.

23.4 If a Geoscape Data clip is misconfigured, you are responsible for any costs incurred. However, if you mistakenly order a Geoscape Data clip, we may cancel the order and restore your credits (less our processing costs) in our complete discretion. If we do so, your Licence to use the Geoscape Data ordered is revoked and you must permanently delete any copies of that Geoscape Data in your possession or control and, if requested by us, provide us with a statutory declaration (or other evidence satisfactory to us) that you have permanently deleted this Geoscape Data.

You can use the data you clip and any material you create from it within your own business or for personal use on a perpetual basis for Core Data, and while your subscription is active for Premium Data.

If you run a professional services business, you can also include the data in reports or models for an individual client, but only in a way that allows Embedded Access (like in a PDF or JPEG).

You can't sell these reports or models as products, especially if you're providing similar ones to multiple clients.

24 Permitted Use

24.1 We permit you to use the clips of Geoscape Data you order through Geoscape Hub (and any Derived Material you create using such Geoscape Data) for the Permitted Purpose of use internal use within your own business for your day-to-day operations or your personal use (as applicable), on the following basis:

- (a) for Core Data, on a perpetual basis; and
- (b) for Premium Data, only for the duration of your active subscription to the relevant Premium Data, subject to any specific terms that apply to the use of Geoscape Data made available through Geoscape Hub.

24.2 Notwithstanding clause 24.1, if you are a professional services business, as part of your professional services, you may supply a physical, hard-copy or static electronic format (for example, PDF, GIF, JPEG or HTML) report or model that:

- (a) only allows Embedded Access to any Geoscape Data or Derived Material it contains; and
- (b) is created for an individual client, to that individual client for their internal business or personal use (as applicable). You must not commercialise any such reports or models as products, including by supplying substantially similar reports or models to multiple clients.

Geoscape Hub lets you manage Geoscape Data and User Data related to your Geoscape Data clips.

When you delete a clip, the related input and output files are permanently deleted.

However, we may keep metadata related to your Geoscape Data clips indefinitely for audit purposes.

25.2

User Data

Geoscape Hub provides self-service capability for you to manage both Geoscape Data and User Data related to your Geoscape Data clips. You can delete your Geoscape Data clips in Geoscape Hub and doing so will permanently delete the related input and output files.

Notwithstanding the above, we may retain metadata related to your Geoscape Data clips indefinitely for audit purposes.

Part E - Geoscape Data

We will provide you access to the Geoscape Data you are licensed to use through Geoscape Hub.

By default, you'll only have access to the latest Geoscape Data. You can request access to past Geoscape Data. However, we're not obliged to provide it to you, and we may charge a fee for doing so, and impose conditions on how you use it.

We're granting you a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use Geoscape Data and anything you create using that data for the Permitted Purpose set out in these Terms or your Agreement, and only during the applicable licence period.

Remember, there are also restrictions on your right to use Geoscape Data and anything you create using that data.

26.1

26.2

Data Access

We will provide you with access to the Geoscape Data you are licensed by us to use through Geoscape Hub.

We are only obliged to provide you with access to the latest Geoscape Data. If you request access to past Geoscape Data, we may, in our absolute discretion, agree or decline to provide such access. If we do agree to provide access to past Geoscape Data, we may, in our absolute discretion, charge you a fee for doing so and may impose conditions on its use.

27.2

Geoscape Data Licence

We grant you a non-exclusive, world-wide, non-transferable licence to use Geoscape Data strictly for the Permitted Purpose and during the licence period set out in these Terms or your Agreement, and subject to the restrictions set out in these Terms or your Agreement (Licence). Any rights relating to Geoscape Data not expressly granted to you are reserved to Geoscape Australia.

You may create Derived Material using Geoscape Data, but you may only use Derived Material in the same way as Geoscape Data, that is, strictly for the Permitted Purpose and during the licence period set out in these Terms or your Agreement, and subject to the restrictions set out in these Terms or your Agreement.

You must not:

- Reverse engineer or attempt to uncover the underlying processes or source code of Geoscape Data.
- Use Geoscape Data or Derived Material to develop capabilities (including AI or machine learning), products, services, or other outputs that compete with Geoscape Data, or for any actual or potential commercialisation.
- Share Geoscape Data or Derived Material with others, including other government entities if you're a government body, unless expressly

28.1

Standard Restrictions on use of Geoscape Data

In addition to any other restrictions on the use of Geoscape Data set out in these Terms or your Agreement, but subject to any express permissions in these Terms or your Agreement, you must not:

- (a) reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile or adapt Geoscape Data, or otherwise attempt to derive any processes, data structures, algorithms or source code used to create Geoscape Data;
- (b) use Geoscape Data or Derived Material to develop capability (including artificial intelligence or machine learning capability), products, services, outputs or other material (including artificial intelligence or machine learning algorithms) that is equivalent to, and competitive with, Geoscape Data or for any commercialisation or potential commercialisation; or permitted in your Agreement or these Terms.

- (c) make Geoscape Data or any Derived Material available to any other person and, if you are a government entity, any other government body (such as a department, agency, authority or corporation).

We provide access to sample data so that you can assess the data we offer and decide whether it is suitable for you.

29

Sample Data Licence

Sample data is free, but your licence to use it is very limited and only for internal evaluation.

29.1

From time to time, we may make Sample Data available to you through Geoscape Hub, our Website or in some other manner pursuant an Agreement. If we do, we grant you a non-exclusive, world-wide, non-transferrable licence to use the Sample Data strictly for the Permitted Purpose of conducting an internal evaluation of the Sample Data (Sample Licence). For the avoidance of doubt, this does not permit you to:

You can't use the Sample Data or any Derived Material for business operations, commercial purposes, or share it with others - including your customers - without our prior written consent.

- (a) use Sample Data or Derived Material as part of your general, day-to-day business operations;
- (b) commercially exploit Sample Data or Derived Material in any way; or
- (c) allow any other person (including your customers) to access Sample Data or Derived Material without our prior, written consent (which may be withheld in our absolute discretion).

You may evaluate the sample data for one month, after which you must delete all copies of the Sample Data and Derived Material. We may require you to confirm this with a statutory declaration or other evidence.

29.2

Any rights relating to Sample Data not expressly granted to you are reserved to Geoscape Australia.

29.3

The Sample Licence is:

The other terms on Geoscape Data in this Part E also apply to sample data, including the restrictions on use and copyright information.

- (a) limited to a period of one month from the date on which you first access the Sample Data; and
- (b) subject to any other restrictions or limitations notified to you by us from time to time.

29.4

At the end of the Sample Licence period set out in clause 29.3(a), you must permanently delete any copies of Sample Data and Derived Material in your possession or control and, if requested by us, provide us with a statutory declaration or other evidence satisfactory to us that you have permanently deleted the Sample Data and Derived Material.

29.5

Where applicable, the rest of Part E of these Terms (on Geoscape Data) applies to Sample Data (for example, clause 28 on restrictions on use of Geoscape Data and clause 30 on copyright information).

You acknowledge that Geoscape Data is subject to the Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer.

30

Copyright Information

The Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer explains how source data is used to create Geoscape Data and acknowledges relevant third parties.

30.1

Geoscape Data and its use are subject to the Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer.

30.2

You must ensure that any reproduction or expression of Geoscape Data or Derived Material bears or appropriately references the copyright and disclaimer information set out in the Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer (for example, by including a notice like "G-NAF © Geoscape Australia 2025 Copyright and Disclaimer Notice" or "Created using G-NAF © Geoscape Australia 2025 Copyright and Disclaimer Notice").

You agree to include the Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer with Geoscape Data and any material created using Geoscape Data.

You must not remove, deface, change, distort, delete or cover up:

It's also important that you don't change any names or notices on Geoscape Data to make it less clear who owns it.

- (a) any name or mark on Geoscape Data which indicates that we or our source data providers are the owner of the Intellectual Property Rights in Geoscape Data; or
- (b) any copyright or other proprietary notices which appear in writing on or in any part of Geoscape Data.

Some Geoscape Data may include or be based on Open Data.

31

Open Data

That Open Data is licensed directly to you under its own open licence, not under your agreement with us.

31.1

You acknowledge and agree that:

You can find details in the Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer.

- (a) Geoscape Data may be derived from or based on Open Data;
- (b) notwithstanding any other provision of your Agreement, to the extent that any such Open Data subsists in Geoscape Data, it is licensed directly to you under an open licence and is not licensed or sub-licensable under your Agreement; and

- (c) information about any such Open Data and its open licence terms is set out in the Geoscape Copyright Notice and Disclaimer.

If your Agreement includes updates, we'll provide them at the frequency set out in your Agreement.

However, these updates rely on updated source data from third parties. If that data isn't supplied to us, we may not be able to provide updates and we won't be liable in that case.

Geoscape Data includes and is based on source data from third party providers.

These providers don't guarantee the accuracy or completeness of their data and are not liable to you for any issues arising from your use of it.

We'll make Geoscape Data available in the formats set out in our product documentation.

If we stop offering a particular format, we'll give you at least three months' notice.

We may update or stop offering some Geoscape Data, for example, due to changes in our source data, legal requirements, or improvements to data quality.

We'll give you prior notice of any significant changes where we reasonably can.

If we discontinue any Geoscape Data, we may adjust your Agreement and refund any prepaid amounts for updates you won't receive.

If you don't want to continue your Agreement as a result, you can terminate it by giving notice within 30 days. You'll need to pay any fees up to the termination date, but we'll refund you for updates you won't receive.

These refunds and your right to terminate are your only remedies if we change or discontinue Geoscape Data.

32 Updates

32.1 If your Agreement states that you will receive Geoscape Data updates, then:

- (a) we will provide you with Geoscape Data updates at the frequency set out in your Agreement; and
- (b) notwithstanding clause 32.1(a), you acknowledge that:
 - (i) our ability to provide updates is dependent upon the supply of updated source data to us from our third party source data providers; and
 - (ii) we will be under no liability to you if we fail to provide a Geoscape Data update due to a lack of supply of updated source data to us by our source data provider.

33 Source Data Providers

33.1 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) Geoscape Data may include, be derived from or based on source data from third party providers;
- (b) our source data providers have not provided any representations or warranties about the accuracy or completeness of their source data, or its fitness for any particular purpose;
- (c) our source data providers may rely on the disclaimers and acknowledgements set out in clause 45 below to the extent they relate to their source data as it forms part of Geoscape Data; and
- (d) our source data providers will not be liable to you for any error, inaccuracy or incompleteness of their source data as it forms part of Geoscape Data or for any use or misuse by you of their source data as it forms part of Geoscape Data.

34 Format of Geoscape Data

34.1 We will use reasonable endeavours to make Geoscape Data available to you in the formats set out in the Geoscape Documentation.

34.2 We may discontinue making Geoscape Data available to you in any given format on at least three months' notice to you.

35 Modification or Discontinuation of Geoscape Data

35.1 You acknowledge that we may:

- (a) modify Geoscape Data or discontinue the availability of some Geoscape Data as a result of a change to our source data supply arrangements, a requirement imposed on us by law, or a change to our technology or data processing methods; or
- (b) modify Geoscape Data to improve its richness or quality (in our reasonable opinion),

(Data Modification or Discontinuation Event). For example, Modification or Discontinuation Events may include changes to the attributes included in Geoscape Data or how Geoscape Data is structured (its data model).

35.2 We will give you notice of any significant Data Modification or Discontinuation Event prior to the event, where we can reasonably do so.

35.3 If we discontinue the availability of any Geoscape Data, we may by notice to you vary our Agreement to remove the relevant Geoscape Data and, if applicable, adjust accordingly the amount of fees payable by you. If you have paid any fees in advance for discontinued Geoscape Data, we will refund any amounts you have paid for updates to the discontinued Geoscape Data you will not receive.

- 35.4 If you do not want to continue your Agreement because of a Data Modification or Discontinuation Event, you may within 30 days of receiving our notice under clause 35.2, terminate your Agreement by notice to us, and the termination will take effect on the date set out in your notice. You will be liable for our fees up to the date your Agreement terminates. However, we will refund any amounts you have already paid for updates to Geoscape Data you will not receive.
- 35.5 The refunds and the right to terminate your Agreement under this clause 35 are your sole remedy against us in respect of any Data Modification or Discontinuation Event.

You do not receive ownership of any intellectual property (IP) rights in Geoscape Data under your agreement. Any new IP rights that arise from copying, thinning or editing Geoscape Data automatically belong to us.

You must obtain our permission to transfer any IP rights in derived materials, and the transferee must only use it as permitted under clause 27.2.

We warrant that we have the right to grant you the licence to use Geoscape Data.

If you notice any IP infringement, you must notify us, provide relevant details and updates, and follow our instructions, which may include ceasing use of the relevant Geoscape Data.

If that happens, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to source replacement data. If we are unable to do that, we may give you a refund for the affected data.

36 Geoscape Data Intellectual Property Rights

- 36.1 There is no transfer of any Intellectual Property Rights in Geoscape Data to you under your Agreement. We reserve any Intellectual Property Rights not expressly granted to you under these Terms or your Agreement.
- 36.2 To the extent that any new Intellectual Property Rights arise in any material created by copying, altering, amending, thinning, editing or otherwise manipulating Geoscape Data, those new Intellectual Property Rights hereby vest in us upon creation.
- 36.3 To the extent that you own any Intellectual Property Rights in Derived Material, you agree to only transfer those rights with our prior written consent (which we will not unreasonably withhold) and subject to the condition that the transferee must only use the Derived Material in the same way you are permitted to you the Derived Material under clause 27.2.
- 36.4 Subject to clause 31 (regarding Open Data), we warrant that we are entitled to grant you the Licence or Sample Licence (as applicable) and that the grant of the Licence or Sample Licence (as applicable) does not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights of any third parties.
- 36.5 You must notify us as soon as reasonably practicable if you become aware of:
- (a) any actual, suspected or anticipated infringement of our Intellectual Property Rights in Geoscape Data; or
 - (b) any use of Geoscape Data which infringes, is suspected of infringing, or is alleged to infringe, the Intellectual Property Rights of a third party.
- 36.6 Where you notify us in accordance with clause 36.5, you must:
- (a) provide all relevant details regarding the infringement;
 - (b) subsequently provide prompt updates on any developments regarding the infringement; and
 - (c) comply with any reasonable directions from us relating to the infringement, including ceasing use of any Geoscape Data immediately on request by us.
- 36.7 If we direct you to cease using Geoscape Data pursuant to clause 36.6(c), we will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain replacement data that will perform in a materially similar way to the Geoscape Data which we direct you cease using. If we are unable to obtain such replacement data, we may, in our complete discretion, refund any fees paid by you in respect of Geoscape Data we direct you to stop using.

You must take all reasonable steps to keep Geoscape Data and Derived Materials secure from misuse, loss, or unauthorised access or disclosure. This includes monitoring your systems for actual or suspected data breaches.

If we ask, you must provide information about your security practices.

37 Security and Data Breaches

- 37.1 You must take all reasonable steps to ensure you keep Geoscape Data and Derived Material secure from misuse, loss, and unauthorised access or disclosure, including by monitoring any systems you use to hold, store or process Geoscape Data or Derived Material for actual or suspected Data Breaches.
- 37.2 On request by us, you must provide us with information about your information security management practices and systems.

If you become aware of or suspect a data breach, you must inform us promptly.	37.3	If you become aware or suspect that a Data Breach has occurred, you must promptly notify us of the Data Breach or potential Data Breach.
If we request it, you must provide relevant information and records and cooperate fully with our investigation into the breach.	37.4	If you provide us with a notice under clause 37.3 or we become aware or suspect that a Data Breach has occurred, on request by us you must promptly: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) disclose to us all information and records relevant to the actual or suspected Data Breach; and (b) co-operate with us and provide all reasonable assistance in investigating whether a Data Breach has occurred and the circumstances surrounding that Data Breach.

Part F - Other general terms

We may adjust your fees by CPI once a year. If we decide to do that, we'll let you know at least 30 days in advance.	38	CPI Adjustments, Payment and GST
You agree that you must pay us your fees within 14 days of us providing you with an invoice.	38.1	We reserve the right to increase the fees payable by you under these Terms or your Agreement once a year by the percentage increase in CPI for the preceding 12 months. We must give you at least 30 days' notice of any such increase.
Also, we may charge interest on overdue amounts.	38.2	Any fees must be paid within 14 days of us supplying you with a valid tax invoice.
Finally, tax is important! So, we each agree to pay GST where it is applicable.	38.3	If you do not pay us in accordance with clause 38.2, we may impose a late payment fee calculated at 1% of the amount owed to us for each month (or part thereof) in which you are in default of payment.
	38.4	In this clause 38, words and expressions which are defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) (as amended, varied or replaced from time to time) have the same meaning given to them by that Act. All amounts payable by you in connection with your Agreement do not include an amount for GST, unless otherwise expressly stated. If GST is payable on any supply made by us under your Agreement, you must pay to us, in addition to and at the same time as the payment for the supply, an amount equal to the amount of GST on the supply. Where you are required by your subscription plan or Agreement to reimburse or indemnify us for any Loss or other amount incurred, the amount to be reimbursed or paid will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that we will be entitled to claim for the Loss or amount incurred and increased by the amount of any GST payable by us in respect of the reimbursement or payment.
You may allow your contractors to use Geoscape Hub and the products and services available through it on your behalf and so that you can enjoy your rights under your Agreement.	39	Contractor use
You must ensure that your contractors only use our products and services in the same way you're permitted to.	39.1	Notwithstanding any other terms of these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable), you may allow your contractors working internally within your business and your professional services contractors to use Geoscape Hub, our products and services available through Geoscape Hub, and Derived Material on your behalf and for the sole purpose of you enjoying your rights under these Terms or your Agreement, on the condition that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) you assume responsibility for your contractors' use being strictly in accordance with these Terms and your Agreement as though they were you (Contractor Terms), and indemnify us from and against all Claims and Losses that we reasonably incur as a direct or indirect result of your contractor using Geoscape Hub, our products and services available through Geoscape Hub, or Derived Material in breach of the Contractor Terms; (b) a breach of the Contractor Terms by your contractors will be deemed to be a breach of these Terms and any Agreement by you; (c) any cancellation of your subscription or termination of an Agreement will result in a corresponding termination of any contractors' right to use Geoscape Hub, our products and services available through Geoscape Hub, and Derived Material; and (d) you ensure that your contractors stop using Geoscape Hub, our products and services available through Geoscape Hub, and Derived
You're responsible for your contractor's use of our products and services and you must protect us from any losses that result from their misuse.
If your contractor misuses our products or services, then you will be taken to have breached your Agreement.
Any termination of your Agreement will also automatically terminate your contractor's rights to use our products and services.
You must make sure that your contractors stop using our products and services when they stop working for you and that they don't retain any copies.

Material and do not retain any copies of Geoscape Data, Derived Material or Geoscape Documentation when they complete their work for you.

Intellectual property is important to us, so we always reserve and retain ownership of our Intellectual Property Rights.

40 Intellectual Property Rights

40.1 There is no transfer of any Intellectual Property Rights in our Website, Geoscape Hub, Geoscape APIs, Geoscape Documentation or any other products or services we provide to you under these Terms or your Agreement. We reserve any Intellectual Property Rights not expressly granted to you under these Terms or your Agreement.

You must use Geoscape products and services (and material created using them) in keeping with Privacy Laws.

41 Privacy Obligations

41.1 You must comply with all Privacy Laws and any recommendations made or guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner in relation to your use of our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them.

You promise that you have appropriate consent to give us any Personal Information you provide.

41.2 You must:

- (a) take all reasonable steps to protect Personal Information in your possession or control from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure, including implementing and maintaining appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards and security measures; and
- (b) not do (or omit to do) anything with respect to Personal Information that causes or is likely to cause us to be in breach of our obligations under any Privacy Laws.

41.3 You warrant that you have appropriate consent to disclose any Personal Information that you provide to us in connection with our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them.

We both agree to keep each other's confidential information confidential and only use it for the purposes set out in your agreement or as reasonably contemplated by it.

42 Confidential Information

42.1 The parties:

- (a) may only use the other party's Confidential Information for the purposes set out in or as reasonably contemplated by these Terms and your Agreement;
- (b) must keep confidential the other party's Confidential Information; and
- (c) may disclose the other party's Confidential Information only:
 - (i) to their employees, contractors and professional advisors who:
 - (A) are aware and agree that the Confidential Information must be kept confidential; and
 - (B) have a need to know the Confidential Information (and only to the extent that each has a need to know),
 - (ii) as required by law or securities exchange regulation; and
 - (iii) with the prior written consent of the other party.

Confidential information can be shared with employees, contractors, or advisors who need to know it and agree to confidentiality, or if required by law.

If one of us becomes aware of a confidentiality breach, they must notify the other and take steps to prevent further unauthorised use or disclosure.

42.2 Each party must promptly notify the other if they become aware of any breach of confidentiality in respect of the other party's Confidential Information and must take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent further unauthorised use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

So, you want to promote the fact that you use our products and services? Fantastic! You can do so provided you acknowledge us properly, cooperate with us and don't do anything that might hurt our reputation.

43 Publicity

43.1 You may publicise your use of Geoscape Hub and the products and services available through Geoscape Hub provided you do so in a manner that:

Unless you tell us otherwise, we can also use your trade marks on our website and in other marketing material to indicate that you're our customer.

- (a) clearly acknowledges Geoscape Australia as the source of Geoscape Hub and the products and services available through Geoscape Hub;
- (b) does not, in our reasonable opinion, adversely affect our reputation; and
- (c) is in accordance with our reasonable directions, which may include a direction to discontinue publicising your use of Geoscape Hub and the products and services available through Geoscape Hub if you breach these Terms or your Agreement.

43.2 Unless you provide us with written notice stating otherwise, we may display your trade marks (registered or unregistered) on our Website and in other marketing material for the purpose of indicating that you are our customer. We will comply with your reasonable directions regarding the form of your trade marks, for example, in relation to their completeness, scale and colour.

If we think you might not be doing the right thing, we can do one audit per year with on least 10 days' notice.

You'll need to give us any documents or access we ask for.

If we do find a problem, you have to fix it, and we can pause your rights until you do.

If the audit shows a serious breach, you might have to cover the audit costs, and we could do another audit in the same year. And we can still end our agreement if needed.

44 Audit

44.1 If we reasonably suspect that you are in breach of these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable), we, or an entity nominated by us, may conduct one audit per year during your normal business hours on no less than 10 Business Days' notice to you. You must, on request by us or our nominee, provide all requested documents and materials that relate to your compliance with these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable) and allow all necessary access to your systems and relevant personnel to ensure compliance with any matters that relate to these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable).

44.2 If an audit identifies any non-compliance by you with your obligations under these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable), then:

- (a) you must take all reasonable actions necessary to address the relevant non-compliance to our reasonable satisfaction; and
- (b) we may suspend your access to Geoscape Hub and your Agreement until such a time as you have taken all reasonable actions in accordance with clause 44.2.

44.3 Where an audit reveals that you have materially breached these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable), we may require you to pay the cost of the audit and may conduct an additional audit within the same year.

44.4 Nothing in this clause 44 limits our ability to terminate your Agreement.

You need to make your own judgements about whether Geoscape Hub and our website, products and services meet your needs, and not rely on any advice from us.

We provide these products and services "as is" and "as available," without guarantees about their accuracy, completeness, or uninterrupted access.

We don't promise they'll be free from errors, viruses, or security issues, or that they'll meet any specific purpose you have in mind.

45 Disclaimers

45.1 You acknowledge that you will make your own assessment of our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them and will not rely on any information or advice given by us (or any person purporting to represent us) regarding whether they are reasonably fit for any purpose for which they will be used by you.

45.2 Our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them are provided to you on an 'as is' and 'as available' basis.

45.3 Subject to clause 46.1 and any express representations, warranties or guarantees that may be included in these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable), we do not make any representations or provide any warranties or guarantees (express or implied):

- (a) about the accuracy or completeness of our Website, Geoscape Hub, or the Geoscape products and services available through them;
- (b) that your access to our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them will be uninterrupted, error free, or free from corruption, viruses, interference, hacking or other security intrusion; or

- (c) that our Website, Geoscape Hub, and the Geoscape products and services available through them will be fit for any particular purpose.

If you're a consumer under Australian Consumer Law, some of your rights are protected and can't be limited by these Terms.

Subject to those protections, per standard market practice:

- If there's a problem, we may choose to repair, replace, or resupply the product or service, or cover the costs of doing so.
- Our liability for any losses you suffer is capped.
- Neither of us are responsible for any consequential losses arising from the use of Geoscape products and services.

You agree to compensate us for losses that result from your breach of these Terms or your agreement, improper use of our products or services, material you create using our data or your apps, your negligence, or you not paying your fees.

We'll indemnify you for claims that our products or services infringe someone else's intellectual property rights, except if the issue arises from your modifications, misuse, or failure to follow our instructions. To claim this indemnity, you must let us handle legal proceedings, assist us, and not settle without our consent.

We both have to try to mitigate any losses we do suffer.

If our own negligence contributes to a loss, we can't recover from each other to that extent.

46 Liability

- 46.1 If you are a Consumer, nothing in these Terms should be interpreted as attempting to exclude, limit or modify the Consumer Guarantees available to you under the Australian Consumer Law that cannot be excluded, restricted or modified.
- 46.2 Your remedies for any breach of these Terms, the terms of your Agreement or a Consumer Guarantee that cannot be excluded (as applicable), will, to the extent permitted by law, be limited at our option to replacing or repairing products, resupplying services, supplying equivalent products or services, or paying the cost of replacing or repairing products, resupplying services, or supplying equivalent products or services.
- 46.3 Subject to clause 46.1, our maximum aggregate liability to you for any Losses suffered by you in connection with the use of Geoscape products or services, however caused, including by our negligence, is limited to the Liability Cap per event or series of related events.
- 46.4 Subject to clause 46.1, neither party will be liable for any Consequential Losses arising from or in connection with the use of Geoscape products and services.

47 Indemnities

- 47.1 In addition to any other indemnities set out in your Agreement, you indemnify us from and against all Claims and Losses we reasonably incur as a result of:
- your breach of these Terms or the terms of your Agreement (as applicable), including any use by or through you of Geoscape products or services for a purpose or in a manner that is not permitted by these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable);
 - use of, or inability to use, your Derived Material or your Apps;
 - any negligent act or omission, wilful misconduct or fraud by you, your employees, agents, servants, contractors or others for whom you are legally responsible; or
 - recovering any amounts you owe to us (including any fees paid to a debt collector, legal representative or similar).
- 47.2 Subject to clause 47.3, we agree to indemnify you from and against all Claims and Losses you reasonably incur as result of any claim against you alleging that use of our products or services infringes the Intellectual Property Rights of any person, except:
- to the extent you make any modifications to our products or services and those modifications contribute to the Claim or Losses;
 - where you use our products or services in combination with any hardware, software or other products or services in a manner that causes the actual or alleged infringement;
 - where the infringement arises due to your failure to use an update for our products or services that is made available to you by us;
 - where you do not comply with any specifications or directions provided by us relating to our products or services; or
 - where the actual or alleged infringement arises due to use of our products or services for a purpose or in a manner that is not permitted by these Terms or your Agreement (as applicable).
- 47.3 To rely on the indemnity in clause 47.2, you must:
- allow us to conduct any legal proceedings;
 - provide us with all reasonable assistance to allow us to defend any Claim;

- (c) follow any reasonable direction we give you; and
- (d) not settle or make any admissions of liability without first obtaining our prior written consent.

- 47.4 Each party has a duty to mitigate any Loss that would otherwise be recoverable from the other party by taking appropriate and commercially reasonable steps to reduce or limit the amount of such Losses.
- 47.5 Each party's liability to indemnify the other will be reduced proportionally to the extent that any negligent act or omission of the other party contributed to the Loss.

We can't always predict the future, and sometimes things happen that are beyond control.

If such an event happens, neither of us will be responsible for any delay or failure to perform (save that you must still pay your fees).

If a delay or failure to perform goes on for more than 30 days, either of us can end your agreement.

48 Force Majeure

- 48.1 Neither party will be liable for any failure to perform or delay in performing their obligations under these Terms or your Agreement if that failure or delay is due to a Force Majeure Event.
- 48.2 If a delay or failure to perform due to a Force Majeure Event exceeds 30 days, either party may immediately terminate your Agreement by notice to the other party.
- 48.3 This clause 48 does not relieve you of or suspend your obligation to pay any fees payable to us.

You must follow any applicable export and economic sanction laws.

This means that there may be certain countries, organisations and people that you can't use Geoscape products and services to do business with.

49 Export control

- 49.1 You acknowledge that export, sanctions and embargo laws may prohibit you from selling, reselling, exporting, re-exporting, trading or otherwise transferring certain Geoscape products and services within certain countries or with certain entities and persons.
- 49.2 You must comply with any applicable export control laws, rules and regulations.

Generally, any changes to your agreement should be captured in writing and signed by us both.

However, your agreement might need to change to reflect changes in the law or our arrangements with our providers. We will tell you about any such changes at least 7 days before they are made.

We may also update these Terms and any other standard terms on our website by giving you 30 days' notice. If we do, this won't change any more specific terms that we've agreed with you in other parts of your agreement.

If you're not comfortable with changes we make, you can terminate your Agreement by letting us know within 30 days, and we'll refund any prepaid fees on a pro-rata basis.

50 Variation

- 50.1 Subject to clauses 50.2 to 50.4, a variation to these Terms or your Agreement is not effective unless it is in writing and signed by both parties.
- 50.2 If there has been a change in any Laws or our arrangements with our suppliers affecting these Terms or your Agreement, we may vary them to reflect the relevant change by giving you 7 days' notice, and the variation will take effect at the end of the 7 day notice period.
- 50.3 We may otherwise vary these Terms and any other standard Geoscape terms made available through our Website by giving you 30 days' notice, and the variation will take effect at the end of the 30 day notice period. For the avoidance of doubt, any such variation will remain subject to more specific terms set out in other documents that comprise your Agreement.
- 50.4 If you do not want your Agreement to continue because of a variation pursuant to clause 50.2 or 50.3, you may terminate your Agreement by notice to us within 30 days of receiving our notice under clause 50.2 or 50.3, and the termination will take effect on the date set out in your notice. You will be liable for our fees up to the date your Agreement terminates. However, we will refund to you any fees you have paid in advance on a pro-rata basis.

This is where we explain what can happen if either of us does something we shouldn't.

We can immediately suspend your access or terminate your agreement if you:

- Allow unauthorised access to our products or services.
- Misuse our products or services or breach the terms and fail to fix the breach within 14 days (if fixable).

51 Suspension and termination

- 51.1 To the extent permitted by law, we may suspend or terminate your access to Geoscape Hub or our Website, and suspend or terminate your Agreement (as applicable) with immediate effect by notice to you if we have reasonable grounds to believe that you:
- (a) have allowed unauthorised access to our products or services;
 - (b) have used our products or services, Derived Material or your Apps for a purpose other than the Permitted Purpose;
 - (c) have breached any other part of these Terms or your Agreement and:

- Violate the law, become insolvent, damage our reputation, or get acquired by one of our competitors.

You can terminate your agreement if we breach it and don't fix it within 14 days or if we become insolvent.

- (i) if the breach is capable of remedy, have not remedied the breach within 14 days of receiving notice requiring the breach to be remedied; or
- (ii) the breach is not capable of remedy.
- (d) have contravened or are contravening any Laws;
- (e) are subject to an Insolvency Event;
- (f) have caused damage to our reputation, goodwill or other interests by your act or omission;
- (g) if you are or become owned or controlled by a Geoscape Australia competitor; or
- (h) your access or use would, in our reasonable opinion, cause us to breach applicable sanctions laws or regulations (including those administered by the Australian Government, the United Nations, or other relevant authorities).

51.2 To the extent permitted by law, you may terminate your Agreement with immediate effect by notice to us if:

- (a) we have breached any other part of these Terms or your Agreement and:
 - (i) if the breach is capable of remedy, we have not remedied the breach within 14 days of receiving notice from you requiring the breach to be remedied; or
 - (ii) the breach is not capable of remedy; or
- (b) we are subject to an Insolvency Event.

When your agreement ends:

- You must permanently delete all Geoscape Data and Derived Material (unless you have a perpetual licence), except for Derived Material that doesn't contain Geoscape Data, which you can continue using internally.
- You might need to sign a statutory declaration confirming the deletion.
- All unpaid fees are due immediately.
- You can no longer identify as a Geoscape user unless you have another agreement with us.
- We may act on your behalf to enforce rights against your End Users as they relate to use of Geoscape Data and Derived Material.

If the agreement ends because you've done something you shouldn't, all your licenses will be revoked, and we may end your access to Geoscape Hub.

52 Effect of Expiry or Termination

52.1 On expiry or termination of your Agreement for any reason:

- (a) unless the Agreement expressly states that your licence period is perpetual, you must permanently delete or destroy Geoscape Data and Derived Material in your possession or control, save for any Derived Material that does not contain any Geoscape Data, which you may continue to use internally within your own business as part of your general day-to-day business operations or for your personal use (as applicable);
- (b) within 10 Business Days of a request by us, you must sign and return to us a statutory declaration in a form satisfactory to us confirming your compliance with clause 52.1(a);
- (c) all fees owed by you to us under the Agreement will become immediately due and payable;
- (d) unless you have another agreement with us, you must not identify yourself in any way as a user of Geoscape Hub or Geoscape products and services;
- (e) in relation to Geoscape APIs, you irrevocably appoint us as your agent for the purposes of enforcing your rights against your End Users as they relate to use of Geoscape APIs, Geoscape Data and Derived Material and you must take all reasonable steps to ensure that such End Users do not challenge the validity of that appointment;
- (f) each party retains the rights it had against the other party in respect of any past breach, in addition to any other rights, powers or remedies provided by Law; and
- (g) you must otherwise comply with our reasonable directions regarding the expiry or termination.

- 52.2 On termination of an Agreement in accordance with clause 51.1
- (a) any Sample Licence or Licence (as applicable) will be revoked with immediate effect, and you must permanently delete or destroy Geoscape Data and Derived Material in your possession or control;
 - (b) within 10 Business Days of a request by us, you must sign and return to us a statutory declaration in a form satisfactory to us confirming your compliance with clause 52.2(a); and
 - (c) if the Agreement is a Geoscape Hub subscription plan, we may terminate your access to Geoscape Hub.

If we have a disagreement, we promise to be fair and reasonable with one another and do our best to resolve it ourselves. If we can't, we may go to mediation before we decide to go to court.

If the nature of the dispute urgently requires it, either of us may seek a court order while we're working to resolve the dispute.

53 Dispute Resolution

53.1 If any dispute arises between the parties in connection with these Terms or your Agreement, then both parties will first attempt to resolve the dispute by negotiation in good faith. If the dispute is not resolved within twenty Business Days of the date on which notice of the dispute is given by a party, either party may submit the dispute to mediation in accordance with this clause 53.

53.2 The mediation procedure will be:

- (a) a party may start mediation by serving a mediation notice on the other party on expiration of the 20 Business Day period referred to in clause 53.1;
- (b) the notice must state that a dispute has arisen and identify what the dispute is;
- (c) the parties must jointly appoint a mediator and, if the parties fail to agree on the appointment within five Business Days of service of the mediation notice under clause 53.2(a), either party may apply to the Resolution Institute to appoint a mediator;
- (d) once the mediator has accepted the appointment the parties must comply with the mediator's instructions;
- (e) the mediation will be held in Canberra in the Australian Capital Territory of Australia in accordance with the mediation rules of the Resolution Institute; and
- (f) if the dispute is not resolved within 20 Business Days of the appointment of the mediator, or any other period agreed by the parties in writing, the mediation ceases.

53.3 The mediator may fix the costs for mediation which must be paid equally by the parties (including the mediator's costs).

53.4 The mediation is confidential, and statements made by the mediator or the parties and discussions between the parties to the mediation before, after or during the mediation, cannot be used in legal proceedings.

53.5 This clause 53 is without prejudice to or limitation to the rights of a party to:

- (a) seek urgent injunctive relief against the other party at any time; or
- (b) exercise a right pursuant to the terms of exercise a right pursuant to these Terms or the terms of your Agreement.

Last are what the lawyers call the 'boilerplates'. Don't worry, you are nearly there!

You can't transfer your rights or obligations to someone else without our permission. If you're an organisation, a change in control counts as a transfer, so you'll need to get our approval first.

We can assign or subcontract our rights and obligations if it doesn't harm your rights.

Waivers are only valid if they're in writing.

54 Miscellaneous

54.1 In your Agreement:

- (a) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
- (b) the word person includes a firm, a body corporate, an unincorporated association, body or organisation established pursuant to international treaty, intergovernmental body, or government authority and other official authority;
- (c) if you are more than one person, your Agreement binds you both separately and jointly;

If any part of these Terms or your agreement is found to be unworkable, that part will be severed, and the rest will live on.

Speaking of living on, certain terms will still be binding even if your agreement is terminated.

Like in any good relationship, each of us will behave in a manner that supports the promises we've given each other.

We're independent contractors, not legal partners.

Communication is important! We can reach one another by post or e-mail. It's important to look out for our messages, as they will be deemed to be received six days after delivery (for post) or one hour after delivery (for e-mails).

Finally, your agreement is governed by the laws of the Australian Capital Territory.

- (d) if you are a trustee, you are bound both personally and in your capacity as a trustee;
- (e) any obligation, representation or warranty in favour of more than one person is for the benefit of them both separately and jointly;
- (f) a reference to a document or legislation includes a reference to that document or legislation as varied, amended, novated or replaced from time to time;
- (g) the meaning of general words is not limited by specific examples introduced by 'includes', 'including', 'for example' or 'such as' or similar expressions;
- (h) a reference to a person includes a reference to the person's executors, administrators, successors, substitutes (including, but not limited to, persons taking by novation) and permitted assigns; and
- (i) no provision will be construed to the disadvantage of a party merely because that party was responsible for its preparation or inclusion.

- 54.2 You must not assign any of your rights or obligations under these Terms or your Agreement without our prior written consent. We may, to the extent permitted by law, assign or subcontract any of our rights or obligations under these Terms or your Agreement (including any right to be paid or chose in action) at any time in circumstances where, in our opinion acting reasonably, the assignment will not adversely affect your rights.
- 54.3 For the purposes of clause 54.2, a Change in Control of you will be considered an assignment of your rights or obligations under your Agreement.
- 54.4 A failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right under these Terms or your Agreement does not constitute a waiver, and any right may be exercised in the future. Waiver of any rights under these Terms or your Agreement must be in writing and is only effective to the extent set out in that written waiver.
- 54.5 If any provision of these Terms or your Agreement is void, unenforceable or illegal and would not be so if words were omitted, then those words are to be severed and if this cannot be done, the entire provision is to be severed from your Agreement without affecting the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.
- 54.6 The termination or expiry of your Agreement does not operate to terminate any rights or obligations that by their nature are intended to survive termination, and those rights or obligations remain in full force and binding on the party concerned, including, without limitation, the rights and obligations under clauses 30 (Copyright Information), 36 (Geoscape Data Intellectual Property Rights), 37 (Security and Data Breaches), 40 (Intellectual Property Rights), 41 (Privacy Obligations), 42 (Copyright Information), 44 (Audit), 45 (Disclaimers), 46 (Liability), 47 (Indemnities), 52 (Effect of Expiry or Termination), 53 (Dispute Resolution) and 54 (Miscellaneous).
- 54.7 Each party must:
 - (a) do all acts necessary or desirable to give full effect to these Terms and your Agreement; and
 - (b) refrain from doing anything which might prevent full effect being given to these Terms and your Agreement.
- 54.8 The relationship between the parties is and will remain that of independent contractors, and nothing in your Agreement constitutes the parties as partners or joint venturers or constitutes any party as the agent of another party or gives rise to any other form of fiduciary relationship between the parties.
- 54.9 Notices from a party must be in writing and delivered by hand, prepaid post or email and sent to the address of the receiving party specified in Geoscape Hub or your Agreement as updated by the parties from time to time. Notices will be deemed to have been received: by hand on delivery; by post within six

Business Days of sending; and by email within one hour of the email being sent (unless the sender knows that the email has failed).
